ST. James's, March 12. The following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Durham, and their Repreſentatives in Parliament. Preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; in the Abſence of the Lord Biſhop of Durham.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Ratisbon, March 12. Letters of the 9th of laſt Month from Seralio, the chief Town in Boſnia, bring Advice, that the main Army of the Turks is certainly to take the Field in March; and that the Grand Vizier with 90000 Foot and a Number of Horſe, will march and encamp before Zadar or Zara, a conſiderable Sea Port in Dalmatia belonging to the Venetians, where he is to be joyned by the Fleet: He is alſo to have a Train of Two hundred Pieces of Artillery, and Sixty Mortars, moſt of the ſmaller Sizes; and beſides the Officers and Gunners already arrived at Seralio, Two hundred and fifty were expected there the next Week. The Grand Signior deſigns to reſide, till this Siege ſhall be over, at Cupres in Boſnia, where Timber is preparing to build him a Seraglio; having changed his Reſolution of going to Belgrade, to avoid giving Umbrage to the Emperour. Several Veſſels of all Sorts are getting ready at Widdin; all the Roads in Boſnia are mended, and the Bridges over the Drin, Boſna, and Verbos, are repaired. The chief Magazines on the Save are to be at Gradiska and Dolbachitz. The Baſſhaw of Boſnia is ordered to give in an Account of all the Proviſions in his Province, and of all the Horſe and Foot he can bring into the Field. Two flying Camps will be formed on the Frontiers of Croatia. The Advices from Vienna, as to a Rupture with the Turks, are ſtill various; tho' repeated Orders have been iſſued to all the Imperial Regiments in Hungary, to keep themſelves in a Readineſs to march. Letters of the 15th of laſt Month from Rome, ſay Count Gallas had received the Emperour's Leave to make a Tour to Vienna; and was preparing for ſetting out on his Journey in 8 or 10 Days.

Hambourg, March 17. The Duke of Mecklenbourg is ſet out from Swerin to go to meet the Czar. M. Schleinitz on the Part of the Czar, and M. Petkum on the Part of the Duke of Mecklenbourg, are adjuſting the Marriage Settlements between that Duke and the Dutcheſs Dowager of Courland. The heavy Cannon from Stralſund being arrived in the Camp before Wiſmar, will be placed on Redoubts, which are making for that purpoſe: The firſt Work when the Siege of that Place in form is begun, will be to cut off the Communication between the Fort of Walfiſh and the Town. 'Tis adviſed, that there is great Want of Proviſions in the ſaid Town, ſo that the Inhabitants begin already to ſuffer very much. The Czar had ſet out from Dantzick for Stargard, but turned back upon receiving Advice on the Road, that the King of Poland was coming thither to confer with him. His Czariſh Majeſty has however ſent Orders to Count Goloffskin his Miniſter at Berlin, to repair forthwith to Stargard and wait his Arrival there. Letters from Berlin tell us, that the King of Pruſſia, the Imperial Miniſter Count Virmond and other Perſons of Diſtinction, will ſhortly ſet out for Stargard. The laſt Letters from Copenhagen ſay the King of Denmark would ſet out on the 14th Inſtant for Holſtein: And that the Squadron of Men of War fitting out at Copenhagen, will in a few Days be ready.

Edinburgh, March 6. Letters from Elſick give an Account, that Lieutenant-General Cadogan was arrived there, on his way hither: That Orders had been ſent to Major-General Wightman, for the immediate diſarming of the Marquiſs of Huntley's and Earl of Seaforth's Men, and all the Rebels Clans who are within Reach of the Garriſon of Inverneſs, and for apprehending their Chieftains. Directions were alſo ſent to Major-General Sabine who Commands at Perth, to diſarm Bradalbin's and Drummond's Men, and ſuch of the Duke of Athol's who have been in Rebellion, and to ſecure the Gentlemen and Heretors. A Detachment having been order'd from Aberdeen into the Braes of Mar, the common People who had been in Rebellion brought in their Arms, and ſubmitted to Mercy. A conſiderable Detachment will forthwith be ſent to Fort-William, in order to the diſarming of the Weſtern Clans, the Principal of which are thoſe of Lochills, Glengary, Clan Renald, and Mackdonald. Which done, the Peace and Tranquility of Scotland will be perfectly ſecured. We have a Report, that the Marquiſs of Huntley and Lord Rollo have ſurrender'd themſelves at Inverneſs, and that the Earl of Bradalbin has ſurrender'd himſelf to Collonel Campbel of Fanab.

Admiralty-Office, March 8. 1715.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty having received a Letter dated the 6th Inſtant Signed J. L. offering to diſcover ſome irregular Proceedings of an Officer in the Navy; theſe are to give Notice, That if the Perſon who wrote the ſame will come to the Admiralty-Office, and make the ſaid Diſcovery, he ſhall receive Protection, and fitting Encouragement.

Navy-Office, March 12. 1715.

This is to give Notice, That the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury have been pleas'd to appoint Money for Paying all the Arrears due to the Penſioners belonging to the Cheſt at Chatham to Lady-Day 1715; and that the ſaid Pay will begin at Chatham on Thurſday the 12th of April 1716.
